

Applying to become a member of the association

We have different forms of membership. Please let us know which membership status is right for you.

Member status:

- Introvision coach/consultant
- Introvision therapist
- Introvision teacher trainer

Admission requirements for coaches/counselors and therapists:

- You have been working as a coach, counselor or psychotherapist for at least 1 year.
- You have completed coaching or counseling training or have completed psychotherapy training.
- You have completed an Introvision training course recognized by the association.
- You have had an admission interview with 2 experienced members of the association who have made a recommendation to the Executive Board
- The Board has approved the recommendation.

Admission requirements for Introvision trainers

- You have been working as a coach, consultant, or therapist for at least three years.
- You have handled at least 30 cases using Introvision.
- Five of your cases have been supervised by a qualified trainer.
- You have conducted a teaching demonstration in the presence of a trainer.
- You have presented your training concept to two trainers and received a recommendation from them for acceptance as a teaching member.
- The board has approved this recommendation.
- You commit to participating annually in the trainers' meeting, which lasts half a day to a full day.
- Certification as a trainer is tied to membership in the Introvision Association and is forfeited upon leaving the association.
- The registration fee is 150 euros.

Costs for membership as a coach/counselor or therapist:

- Admission fee 120€. This fee is also due if you are not accepted as a member.
- Annual fee 276€
- If you are accepted during the year, the annual fee is calculated on a monthly basis.

Costs for membership as a teaching trainer:

- Admission fee 250€. This fee is also due if you are not accepted as a teaching member.
- Annual fee 500€
- If you join during the year, the annual fee is calculated on a monthly basis.

Please send your application to:

info@introvision-association.com or by post to our office:
Theodor Heuss Str. 36, D 78467 Constance